The research pot data must be reported for each trip or distinct fishing area if you move to a different region on the same trip. Refer to maps for distinct fishing areas.

If you retain other (non-target) octopus species then record them here.

This section must be completed for every physical interaction you have with a Threatened, Endangered and Protected Species (TEPS). More information on the relevant codes can be found on the fold out flap of this book.

If using a different pot type then you will need to start a new sheet even if the gear change is on the same fishing trip. The default pot is a shelter pot so if using this pot type leave this part blank.
